

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 15, 1977

MEMORANDUM FOR

THE ACTING DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

I appreciate your forwarding for my attention the Intelligence Community's annual report. I am encouraged at the progress that has been made to enhance the stature of our efforts through forthright dialogue with the public and the Congress. The dedicated efforts throughout the community to get on with the job is essential to our National Security. My appreciation to all for a job well done.

